

What processes are involved to change from a female bodied person to male (FTM)?

People choose various procedures in the process of transisioning from a female body to male. This is influenced by the persons own level of satisfaction and affordability:

- Hormone therapy
- Histerectomy
- Ovariectomy
- Breast removal and reconstruction of a male chest (including nipples)
- Phalloplasty or metidioplasty