

What is a transvestite?

The clinical name for a crossdresser. A person who dresses in the clothing of the opposite sex. Generally, these persons do not wish to alter their biological gender. Being a transvestite does not specify the sexual preference of a person (e. g. being heterosexual or homosexual).